Blackmore Speaks On Trip To England

Addressing a fair sized audience last night, John H. Blackmore, New Democracy leader in the Dominion House and Lethbridge M. P. related some of his experiences and impressions on his recent trip to England. He was amazed to see the air was prepared to "carry on" with miniature governments organized all over the island, in case anything happened to London.

Many cities had been visited by the group, including Coventry and they viewed the effects of bomb raids. Factories were running full speed almost as many women as men were seen in uniform and it was amazing and satisfying to see how the women rallied to their country's call. They were presented to their majesties the King and Queen and chatted about the royal visit to Canada, which was still a bright spot in the hearts of our rulers. They also visited the Prime Minister and other officials.

We have a big job. With latest developments, Britain & the United States with their freedom loving allies, are left to fight the world. We must win and we shall win, and every loyal Canadian was urged to do his and her part to see that we did win. The talk was greatly enjoyed and the speaker had evidently greatly enjoyed his trip and the first-hand knowledge that he received.

GRAVELLING STARTED

Just as we go to press news comes that the crusher is on the way and graveling will commence Saturday morning. This should be good Christmas news for all of us in Raymond.

BEAUTIFUL CAKE ON DISPLAY

A beautiful Christmas cake, made, decorated and donated to the Red Cross by Mrs. T. J. O'Brien is on display in the Mercantile window, and will be given to the holder of the lucky ticket when the draw is made.

Tickets are being sold now, and you should make it a point to get a chance on this lovely cake which will not only make some one very glad to win it, but will give everyone a chance to help the Red Cross a little bit. Get yours now.

Men For The Army Urgently Needed

Speaking at a recruiting luncheon in Lethbridge Wednesday, Brigadier F. M. W. Harvey, D.O.C. of Military District No. 13 made it very plain that more men were urgently needed for all arms of the service in Canada's forces. He praised the record made and said that Alberta, with her scattered and numerically small population, had furnished 10 p.c. of the recruits for the Canadian forces to date, but he said this was still not enough and we had to have more men.

Contrasting the position of Germany now and in the last war, he said that with only one exit to the outside world, and only herself to depend on, she had held out four and a half years against the world. Today, he said, she had the resources of all the conquered countries to aid her, and 225 million people amongst which are the finest tradesmen in the world. And don't think, said the speaker, that these people won't work for Hitler, because he knows all the tricks of making them work when they don't want to.

We need more action and less wishful thinking. This is going to be a long war and a hard war. Germany has done what no nation on earth has ever done before, said the speaker, in her Russian campaign, she had held a front of 3,000 miles and has advanced on that front in some sections as much as 700 miles. This is the enemy and the kind of organization that we must meet and defeat. We need more men, and we should not wait until some national disaster awakens us to this realization. Das iness should replace its young and physically fit young men with older men and women.

Gripping Pioneer Story To Be Presented

Directed by Shirley King, and with a cast of twenty characters the 2nd Ward Mutual are presenting next week a Mutual play "Hand Cart Trials" one of the finest stories of the great trek across the American desert to the valleys of the mountains we have ever read.

The story of this handcart company which left Iowa City late, and the incidents and accidents that befell it will grip you from start to finish. Startling the gay free hearted manner of the late summer, you follow them through the fall where their travels are beset by wild Indians, wolves and so on. The weather turns to winter and snow storms set in. Travel is slow, rations give out; sickness sets in and death takes a heavy toll. In the midst of this members of the company lose their minds and violence is quickly averted by strong and quick action by the company leaders. Through it all, the love for fellow man that the spirit of sacrifice begets is beautifully shown, and the undying faith of even the weakest of the company that the Lord will see them through and they will yet see Zion, brings tears to your eyes, and then in the final scene the rescue wagons come and rejoicing and light-heartedness again returns to the diminished and half-starved company. Joy, sorrow, pathos and drama seldom equalled in amateur dramatics are so packed into this three act play, you will enjoy every minute of it, and will want to see it more than once in order to get the full story.

RED CROSS MEETING

A meeting of the local Red Cross will be held in the Town Hall, Tuesday evening, Dec. 16 at 9.15 immediately after Mutual to hear the reports of the past year's work, and to elect officers for the coming year.

This is your meeting. This is war time. Make sure you are there and take your part in discussing this very important phase of war work.

Major J. H. Gainor Visits Raymond

STORES LOVELY IN DECORATIONS

If you are not Christmas minded then visit local stores and see the lovely array of Christmas gifts and the artistically decorated windows and see if you don't warm to the spirit of the season.

Christmas trees are lining the street in front of business houses and stores are full of gifts lovely gifts that this year though higher are still obtainable now. Shop keepers inform us that many lines especially mechanical toys, electrical appliances, wagons, bicycles, tricycles, and other items containing metal will be unobtainable when present stocks are depleted. Because of this, items in these departments are going very fast.

Windows are especially inviting the full length of the street. The one window in the Mercantile that really gets attention is the one containing so many dolls, doll buggies, furniture for the dollies, and so on. This window under the lights at night is really lovely, and many have been heard to remark that it surpasses the Xmas windows of some of the neighboring larger centres.

Stores report a very good business, and it looks as though even in the midst of war with all its horrors, the love of fellow man and the spirit of Xmas would find even a greater expression in the midst of our present war torn world.

Beet Pay Last Week End

Cheques went in the mails last week-end for the balance of the initial $6.00 per ton payment on 1941 beets representing in the neighborhood of 15 p.c. of the beets. Cheques were being cashed and the money divided up Monday and local banks and business houses had a busy day as the long awaited payments were coming in from these cheques.

Beets are moving in from the storage piles without interruption and another few days will see all of these shipped and only beets from the shed piles at the two factories remaining to be sliced. The local factory is enjoying its usual good run and a good average slicing is being maintained, with sugar content averaging between 17 and 18 per cent, which is higher than last year.

DO WE WANT A CHEESE FACTORY

A. W. Jones announces that if the sufficient number of cows are assured, a local Company can be formed and a Cheese Factory established. We haven't room to go into details, but if interested parties will leave their names, and farmers the number of cows they have, a meeting can be called. See Mr. Jones.

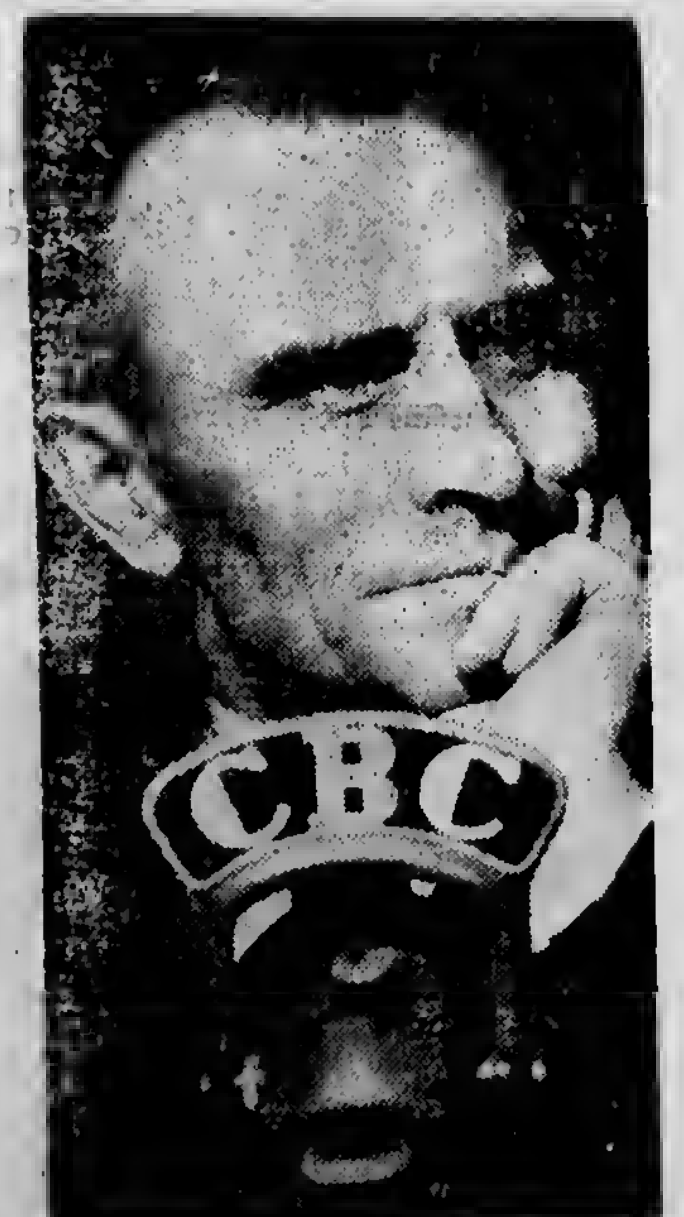

Christmas decorations and lights are gracing the store fronts up and down Broadway this week. It surely won't be long now.

A luncheon meeting was held Thursday at noon when Major J. H. Gainor, of the Provincial Recruiting Office spoke briefly on the urgent need for recruits for the army and the excellent opportunity offered young men for advancement and education today. A round table discussion took place, and amongst other facts growing out of this were the following. As Canadians we should not and must not leave our men in uniform without replacements in their units. The Canadian Navy and Air Force have more applications than they can possibly take care of at the present moment, but men are badly needed in various army units. Some sections of our six divisions are still recruiting to get their ranks filled.

Many questions respecting enlistment and what could be done were asked, and with a view to assisting, it was stated that young men could be educated as to the opportunities and as to categories. The following men were named to act as contact men, and it was announced that arrangements had been made, whereby any man that passed the medical examination could be provided with transportation to a depot either in Lethbridge or Calgary at once: P. W. Cope, Lee Brewerton, T. Geo. Wood, Heber F. Allen, L. R. Pack, O. H. Snow, Dr. J. S. Madill and S. I. May.

Major Gainor was accompanied by Major R. W. Phipps, commanding the 112th Anti-Aircraft Battery in Lethbridge and they also had a display case of work done by recruits in the Trade Schools at Victoria Park, which greatly interested everyone who attended the luncheon. Two or three recruits volunteered for service while they were here and reported for their medical inspection.

Only ten shopping days left before Christmas. You'll have to make up your minds pretty quick about what you are going to buy.

J. H. BLACKMORE, M. P.

Mr. Blackmore, leader of the New Democracy Party in the House of Commons, was heard over CBC networks recently from London, in the "Britain Speaks" period. Mr. Blackmore has been visiting England as one more Canadian parliamentary observer of the war scene.

HERE'S GOT TO BE A
SANTA CLAUS

By Channing Pollock
Author and Lecturer

"When she was a very little girl, my daughter asked, 'What could you do if there weren't any trees?'"

"Why," I answered, light-heartedly, "we'd have to invent one. We couldn't get on without trees."

There are quite a lot of things — food, shelter, clothing — we couldn't get on without and a number of wise men have many suggestions we'd have to invent them. What we must have, even more than these are needed for the mind, shelter, for the spirit, that which clothes the nakedness of mere animal existence and gives warmth to human contacts.

We celebrate Christmas as a religious festival, but a Christmas was celebrated hundreds of years before Christ. The ancient people of the Angli, in what is now Britain, had in December a Yule-tide, or 'mother's night'. There had to be a day set aside for kindness, and generosity, and remembering those we love, and those less fortunate.

Before and since Dickens wrote his immortal A Christmas Carol, there have been a few Scrooges who cried of Christmas, "Bah, humbug!" I have heard modern Scrooges call it a shopkeepers' holiday, and a nuisance, but for the overwhelming majority of us, as for Scrooge's nephew it is "a good time! a kind, forgiving, charitable, pleasant time; the only time I know of in the long calendar of the year when men and women open their shut-up hearts freely — I say God bless it!"

There is a certain magic in a day when even strangers bid us be merry; when the mail and telephone and telegraph and all the means of communication commonly devoted to business bring cherry wishes for "Merry Christmas!" Shopkeepers' holiday! — Humbug! It isn't a necktie or a dollar bill that we slip into the hand of the janitor or the postman. It's goodwill and thank you for a year of service. It isn't a toy train that we put under the tree for Junior, or a muffler that we wrap in red tissue for Aunt Julia, but the knowledge that Junior has always wanted a train, and Aunt Julia has needed a muffler, and our loving desire that, just this one day, they shall have what they want and need, and that we shall see the pleasure in their eyes and feel the warmth of their joyful kisses.

Believe it or not, and smile if you like, but, at — well say 60, my wife and I still hang up our stockings. What a lot of love and laughter and tenderness goes into the trifling gifts we select for those symbols. We trim our little tree with bright stars and tinsel and for days ahead, in secret, we write messages, and wrap things in gay paper, and hide them from one another until the morning of mornings.

Shopkeepers' holiday! Was it only a shaving kit I could have got for myself that went into that starry package or was it my daughter's heart that remembered the time ages ago, when I said, "Damn that old razor! Some day I'm going to have one that fits into my hand properly!" What about the crate of oranges that comes every Christmas from a colored elevator boy in Florida? I can buy better oranges, but I can't buy what comes with these.

We dine every day, but there is only one Christmas dinner. For years that was a family festival with all our dear ones about the table. Most of them are gone now and our Christmas guests are people who, whatever their means, have no home of their own. Why? Well when I was 19 and away from home for the first time at Christmas, a very lonely lad, the mother of a chap employed in the office with me asked me to her home. I never saw her again; she has been dead nearly 40 years, but she and that dinner live in my memory.

Last Christmas my wife and I had half a dozen old actors, forgotten now, and we talked of the great days in the theatre, and lived them again until long after midnight. Irene Franklin who had been the idol of vaudeville, sang several of her best songs to us, and a very old Shakespearean actor repeated — and how! — the soliloquy from Hamlet. It took Christmas to restore their heyday for an hour or two, and that memory goes on our golden pile of Christmases.

During a radio broadcast not long ago, I met the middle-aged woman who, as a child of 8, wrote to the New York Sun, "Please tell me the truth, is there a Santa Claus?" Every year the Sun reprints the reply it made editorially in 1897: "Yes Virginia there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exists — There is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest men that ever lived could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance, can push aside that curtain and view and picture the supernatural beauty and glory beyond. Is it all real? Ah — in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding."

Of course there's a Santa. And if there weren't, he'd be the very first of the things we'd have to invent. Life — we have love and a little childlike faith to be enduring; and the year must have at least one day when we are more conscious of faith and love than of business and bombs and all the realities nobody doubts — and nobody wants!

Whereas We unanimously condemn the attempts of the Axis Powers to destroy British institutions;

Germany and Italy formally declared war against the United States Thursday. In their usual bragging manner both Axis leaders spoke of the glorious victory they would win. We wonder?

The regular School Board meeting was held Monday night with all Board members present. Routine business occupied the time, and a decision was made to get the School band to work again, after a hold up for a conductor due to the enlisting for service of A. E. Cahoon who helped organize the band last spring.

Town Council meeting was held Monday night. Aside from the routine matters of the month, the announcement that a pipeline would be laid from the Town Hall corner west one block, and another one north past the A. D. Terry and Jas. Taylor blocks. There was little new business. A committee from the Library was present with a very fine report and asking extension of present financial arrangements between the Council and Library Board. These requests were tabled for a month for investigation.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Wolsey left last Wednesday for Calgary and from there to Ottawa, Ont., where Milt has entered the military postal service. We wish them both luck and a safe return home.

C. P. R. Employees' $50,000 Buys Two Fighter Planes

Canadian Pacific Railway employees throughout the system have, by donating old gold, treasured keepsakes, and cash, contributed $50,000 for the purchase of two fighter aircraft for the Royal Canadian Air Force. The cheque was presented at an impressive ceremony held recently in the Windsor Station concourse in Montreal, when representatives of the services, officials of the company, employees, and representatives of the R.C.A.F. joined in a colorful ceremony. Illustration shows C. E. Stockdill, assistant to the vice-president, Western Lines, presenting the cheque to Air Commodore A. de Niverville, Air Officer Commanding No. 3 Training Command, who in turn passed it on to Air Vice-Marshal G. O. Johnson, N.C., deputy chief of the Air Staff. The idea of the Golden Aircraft Fund originated with Miss Gladys Gowland of the company's treasury department, and was carried through to a vigorous finish by an employees' committee.

EGG PRICES — WHAT WILL THEY BE?

The question of egg prices is one that interests all producers especially in view of the contract to supply large shipments of eggs to Britain during the next few months. This contract calls for the shipment of 1,000,000 cases between September 1, 1941, and May 31, 1942. With 30 dozen or 360 eggs per case this means 360,000,000 eggs. This appears to be a tremendous large number but when figured in terms of the number it will provide per person in Britain, the amount is small, only about 8 eggs per person. Of course other sources of supply are also available to the British but from what we hear, eggs continue to be a scarce article in the diet of the British people.

Out of the total of 1,000,000 cases 770,000 cases must be produced and shipped between December 1, 1941 and May 31, 1942; the remainder are presumably in Britain or on their way. We know that the Canadian producers are willing to produce the necessary eggs but they are interested in the returns they will get. This can be determined within fairly definite limits on the basis of the contract price.

In the period from December 1 1941 to February 28 1942, 170,000 cases are to be shipped. These are to be all Grade A and are to be paid for on a basis of 32.12 cents per dozen, f.o.b. Canadian seaboard. In a release from the Agricultural Supplies Board, Dominion Department of Agriculture, a scale of charges has been shown, covering all the costs of assembling and shipping the eggs. This shows that the total cost from Calgary or Edmonton will range from 8.8 to 9.8 cents per dozen, accepting the higher figure it may be calculated that the minimum price to producers should be 22.3 cents per dozen for Grade A eggs during the winter season.

A larger shipment of 600,000 cases is to be sent during the period March 1 to May 31, 1942. Some of the eggs in this shipment may be Grade B. The prices for this period are 28.79 cents per dozen for Grade A and 26.58 for Grade B, all prices f.o.b. Canadian seaboard. Using the charges quoted above the minimum price for the spring period should be about 19 cents per dozen for Grade A and 16.8 cents per dozen for Grade B to producers in Southern Alberta.

At present egg prices are considerably above the minimum figures quoted above and it may be assumed that relatively few eggs are going into export channels. However, as production increases prices will naturally go down but the producers now have a fair estimate of what they should expect as minimum returns for their product. These returns are not high but proper feeding and management of the

North-West Line Elevators Association
AN ILLUSTRATED GUIDE TO PRAIRIE WEEDS

The above title has been chosen for a new 72-page bulletin just published by the Agricultural Department of The North-West Line Elevators Association. This bulletin contains portrait photographs of 63 common weeds, and four of the illustrations are in full color. All of the weeds illustrated are also described, and brief notes on 22 others are included. At the end of the bulletin will be found photographs of seeds of 60 different weeds.

The chief purpose of the bulletin is to assist farmers and others in identifying weeds. A few remarks on control methods are offered in most cases, but these are brief. Methods of control must be adapted to local conditions and, hence, specific recommendations can rarely be applied to large areas.

The first essential in fighting weeds is to know them. This is particularly true of perennials such as Leafy Spurge, Hoary Cress and others. Control is relatively easy if undertaken in time, and a delay of two or three years may be costly.

It has been stated that, in the United States, losses due to weeds are one and one-half times as great as the combined loss due to animal diseases, plant diseases and insect pests. The situation on the Canadian prairies is probably not very different.

The new bulletin will be found most helpful, and should be in the hands of every prairie province farmer. Copies may be obtained free of charge from grain buyers or any line elevator company associated with this Department, or from The North-West Line Elevators Association, Winnipeg or Calgary.

LAMONT IS NAMED TO POST HELD BY L.W. BROCKINGTON

Appointment of Cecil Lamont as successor to L. W. Brockington, K. C., was announced following a meeting of the directors of the North West Line Elevators Association. Mr. Brockington held the post of general counsel of the association until his departure for Ottawa on leave of absence two years ago to act as advisor to the War Committee of the Dominion cabinet. During Mr. Brockington's leave of absence, Mr. Lamont carried on Mr. Brockington's duties with the Line Elevators' Association.

Prior to joining The Alberta Pacific Grain Company Limited at Calgary 15 years ago, Mr. Lamont was with the Saskatchewan Co-operative Elevator Company Limited, Regina and when with that organization made a special survey of the Co-operative movement when, in 1925, he visited all the co-operative pooling organizations in the United States. During the wheat congestion in Canada in 1935 and 1936 he was loaned to the Canadian Wheat Board by the Alberta Pacific Grain Company to visit the millers in Great Britain and Europe to negotiate the use of greater quantities of Canadian wheat in their grists.

A short time ago Mr. Brockington requested that he be relieved of his position with the Line Elevators Association to engage in the practice of law in Ottawa following a projected speaking tour in the interests of Canada's war effort in Great Britain and the United States.

Satisfaction has been expressed by Hon. J. T. Thorson, Minister of National War Services, at the manner in which the youth of Canada is responding to the regulation calling for all persons to fill out National Registration forms upon reaching the age of sixteen.

According to the Bureau of Statistics, 222,000 persons in Canada reached the age of sixteen during the past year. Of this number, approximately 112,000 were males and 110,000 females.

J. A. Ririe of Magrath, who is feeding a bunch of lambs at the local feed yards was a Raymond visitor Friday morning.

Exceptionally low railway fares over the C.P.R. will be in force again this holiday season. If you have been planning a vacation, and have been putting it off in past years, maybe now would be the ideal time to take it.

The Stake Primary Board met in their monthly Union meeting on Sunday in the 2nd Ward Hall. Quarterly Conference took the usual date, but Stake officers were anxious to put over the month's work and so called this meeting, attended too, by Pres. T. Geo. Wood and Pres. H. F. Allen of the Stake Presidency. At the conclusion of the meeting Pa and Ma Santa Claus arrived and distributed Pop Corn balls to the congregation.

NEWS NOTES

A few of the young people gathered at the Hamp Witbeck home last Sunday evening after meeting for a social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brewerton were Calgary visitors the first of the week.

Ray Bascom left Wednesday for East End, Sask., where he and the family are to make their home. Mrs. Bascom and the children have been there for a couple of weeks. Ray 'lowed as how he ought to have the Recorder come to them in Saskatchewan, and we were very glad to send it to them. With their many friends we wish them every success in their new home.

AGAINST THEIR WILL AND INTEREST THE HUNGARIAN PEOPLE WERE DRAWN INTO THIS WAR ON THE SIDE OF NAZISM IN SPITE OF THEIR HATRED OF FASCISM AND OPPRESSION

expresses well the feeling of the majority of the Canadian Hungarians in its aims, as incorporated in its constitution:

(a) To work in unity with the Canadian people FOR the preservation and defence of Canadian democracy and AGAINST its enemies working openly or secretly, irrespective of whether they are in Canada or elsewhere.

(b) To rally all Canadian Hungarians to the side of the Canadian people in opposing Nazism or any other form of Facism which has attacked and threatens the autonomous rights of the various nations and which endangers and bars the progress of humanity in general.

(c) To aid in the creation of an independent, free and democratic Hungary which will be in close harmony with the interests of the Canadian people. (Article 3 of the Constitution) THE CANADIAN HUNGARIANS as all democratic people of Canada are most wholeheartedly behind CANADA'S democratic WAR EFFORT for an ALL-OUT VICTORY OVER FASCISM.

A 4 p.c. penalty will be added to all unpaid taxes and arrears on Dec. 16th. If you are in the red, you have a few days now to pull out.

Major H. F. Jenkins, assisted by an N.C.O., both of Military District No. 13, were in town Monday afternoon to sign up volunteers. None however signed up at present. Several were interviewed, and apparently with the completion of the campaign at the Sugar Factory a number are going into the service. Major Jenkins left for Calgary about 4:30.
